COTTINGHAM METHODIST CHURCH welcomes performers, teachers and audience to the 47th Annual Musical Festival. The Festival is run to give performers an opportunity to perform in a friendly environment, for them to receive constructive criticism and to give us all an opportunity to enjoy their performance. We recognise the hard work they do along with the dedication of teachers and supporters.

NEW MARKING SCHEME: The British & International Federation of Festivals (Biff) has developed a new marking scheme – the first change since the 1980s – which we will begin using in the 2025 festival. In their own words, ‘the aim of the scheme is to promote BIFF’s core values –Perform | Educate | Inspire’ – through ‘praise for achievements; positive and constructive teaching points; honesty; kindness and warmth; encouragement and affirmation’. The full outline of the Descriptors and Criteria can be found on page 4. At Cottingham, we are choosing this opportunity to move away from giving a mark for each performance and the written feedback will now show a category (band) but not a specific mark. The adjudicator will still allocate first and second places etc., guided by the criteria.

TROPHIES: In a survey at the 2024 Festival, 73% of those performers, parents and audience members who responded gave their support to continuing the tradition of awarding trophies to class winners, so this is what we will continue to do! Trophies are awarded in most classes (see Rule 12) and they must be returned by the date requested ready for the next year’s festival. Trophies are the responsibility of the winner during that time, any damage incurred should be repaired at their expense and they should be returned in a clean condition. The cost and arranging of engraving (if desired) are also the responsibility of the holder.

OTHER TROPHIES are presented at the discretion of the Festival Committee and Adjudicators: Victor Ludorum Shields are awarded for the most meritorious performance in each section of the Festival and the Eardley Kemp and Frederick Ingilby Trophies are presented to musicians showing outstanding promise in this year’s Festival. The winners will each receive a cheque from the Friends of the Festival to help them in their studies.

CHANGES for 2025: we have revised some of the time limits to make scheduling more accurate and in the singing section, some age groups have altered slightly – please check the syllabus carefully. There are new classes for choirs and Teacher & Pupil duets have been added to the instrumental section. There are also a few clarifications in the RULES section, plus we are introducing a charge for use of the official accompanist service.

FESTIVAL CELEBRATION CONCERT: A number of performers, representing all age groups and sections of the Festival, will be invited to perform at this event. This year’s concert date and chosen charity will be confirmed in January. Since 1985 (39 years) the concerts have raised over £15,500 for various charities. Our 2024 concert in aid of the Hull Centre for the Deaf raised £620 – thank you to everyone who contributed.

NEW BIFF MARKING SCHEME

Marking Band	Descriptors	Criteria
Developing 65 - 69	A performance demonstrating an awareness of technical skills, requiring more consistency & artistry.	An inconsistent performance with an overall need for accuracy and /or continuity and artistic development.
Progressing 70 - 74	A performance showing development of technique and/or communication and commitment.	A generally secure performance in notes and rhythm at a reasonable tempo but as yet with limited attention to detail, tonal qualities, and style.
Merit 75 - 79	A competent performance, showing some artistic awareness and/or technical ability.	Mostly fluent and accurate, with some awareness of tone and style, but requiring a sense of communication and performance.
Commended 80 - 84	A convincing performance technically & artistically, with increasing stylistic & communication skills.	Confident, with clear evidence of tonal and stylistic qualities and a developing awareness of communication and performance, although there may be moments of imprecision.
Honours 85 - 89	An excellent performance, demonstrating fluent technical and artistic skills with emerging individuality.	Assured and expressive, demonstrating a high level of technical security, imagination and stylistic insight and with a real sense of communication and performance, although small blemishes may be present.
Outstanding 90 - 94	An impressive performance technically and artistically, displaying spontaneity & clear individuality.	A stimulating, imaginative and persuasive performance, showing stylistic flair, interpretative insight, poise and unobtrusive technical command.
Exceptional 95 +	A superlative performance, displaying exceptional artistic individuality.	An astonishingly impressive performance displaying effortless technical control and superlative individuality in its artistry, and profound musical insight.

OUR ADJUDICATORS

STEVEN ROBERTS has been a music adjudicator since 2001; has sat on the Adjudicators Council and was Chair of the Board of Trustees between 2014 and 2023. He is a busy professional; conducting, teaching and lecturing. He brings with him experience as a manager, knowledge of quality systems, business acumen and many years of leading change.

He has successfully combined a career in education with his work as a conductor, musical director and adjudicator, working both in this country and in Europe and as far a field as Peru and Bahrain.

Steven has conducted numerous concerts throughout this country and throughout Europe with a variety of Choirs, ensembles and orchestras, wind bands and brass bands. He has toured extensively with the Gary Clarke (contemporary Dance) Company for his productions of COAL and WASTELAND.

He studied piano, brass and voice and has worked in a variety of musical settings. He has worked alongside actors and dancers on many projects and is keen to support the work of the Federation to maximise opportunities for performance within all disciplines. He enjoyed working with his colleagues on the Board and Councils and continues to serve the wider community of volunteers that help to keep our Festivals vibrant.

Having previously held the post of Director of External Relations at Barnsley College he has excellent communication skills and enjoys collaborative working. He runs singing workshops for both adults and young people, particularly focussing on Key Stage 1 and 2. He is a visiting lecturer at the University of Salford in the Department of Occupational Therapy, lecturing on presence and engagement.

MALCOLM GREEN studied clarinet at the Royal Academy of Music, where he won many prizes as well as a First Class degree and the Recital Diploma, the Academy's highest performing award.

In 2018 he relinquished his post as Head of Woodwind, Brass and Percussion at Bedford School in order to devote more time to performing and adjudicating.

His performing experience includes recitals at the Purcell Room and Harrogate Festival. He has performed with the Ulster and English National Opera orchestras and is still active as a player. He has been principal clarinet in the Bedford Sinfonia for over thirty years and has performed the Finzi and Copland Concertos with the orchestra.

He has been involved with the Bedfordshire Music Festival for over thirty five years and is currently a Vice President and Life Fellow.

Many of his previous pupils have joined the music profession and previous pupils who have gone into other spheres include the former England test captain Alastair Cook and "Pub Landlord" Al Murray!

JACQUELINE EDWARDS A descendant of Dame Clara Butt, Jacqueline studied at the RCM and the Mozarteum, Salzburg. She has performed extensively in oratorio and on the concert platform, and has sung with Opera North, Glyndebourne Touring Opera, English Touring Opera, Wexford Festival Opera, Opéra du Nord in Lille, France and the BBC Singers.

Jacqueline has been a qualified singing teacher and vocal coach for over thirty-five years, both in London and York, and teaches adult beginners to professionals, including members of Opera North and York Minster Songmen.

Since 1993, Jacqueline has adjudicated Solo Singing for The British and International Federation of Festivals across the UK and in Southern Ireland, and in 1994, founded the highly successful York Competitive Festival of Singing. She has accompanied Master Classes presented by Malcolm Martineau, Richard Jackson and Dame Anne Evans for The Association of Teachers of Singing of which she is a member.

Having a great interest in vocal physiology and rehabilitation, Jacqueline worked for some years as Singing Specialist for the multi-disciplinary Voice Clinic at Leeds General Infirmary.

As both singer and pianist, Jacqueline presents a series of light-hearted one-woman shows for which she composes some of her own humorous material.

RULES

1. ENTRIES:

See the Entry Form for details of how to enter by post or email. It would help us enormously if you could download an entry form and type your entry, rather than handwrite it (especially your email address!).

Entry closing date
Monday 28th October 2024

Fees are shown for each class within the syllabus. Fees cannot be refunded except where the Festival cancels a class. Payment may be made by BACS, Cheque (payable to "CMCMF") or cash.

2. ENTRANTS may perform once only in each class, except for duet and trio classes where they may play more than once as long as they have different partners, or are a bona fide member of two choirs or groups.

3. AGES:

Performers should calculate their age as at January 15th 2025.

4. GRADES: Where the grade is given, this is the grade we would expect the performer to have attained. The piece performed should be at the standard for that grade or a maximum of 1 grade higher. In pre-Grade 1 classes, the piece chosen must be Grade 1 maximum. A pupil who is missing an exam and working towards a higher grade, should enter at the appropriate higher standard to ensure we have performances of a similar standard, to make fair competition.

We realise this puts an onus on the performer and their teacher but trust that we can rely on their integrity.

Grades are to be assessed as at January 15th 2025, not the date of entry.

5. OFFICIAL ACCOMPANISTS:

Performers are advised to bring their own accompanist if at all possible. An official accompanist is available in the instrumental and vocal sections. For 2025, the Festival is introducing a charge of £5 per performance for this service (non-refundable), payable at the time of entry. For those using the official accompanist, we are also introducing a requirement for pieces of Grade 6 difficulty and above, that the performer must arrange and pay for a rehearsal with the official accompanist before the festival. Contact details will be provided. The accompanist will charge a fee of £11 for a rehearsal of up to 20 minutes or £16.50 for a rehearsal of up to 30 minutes, depending on the difficulty of the piece to be performed. The fee is payable directly to the accompanist at the time of the rehearsal. Failure to arrange a rehearsal may result in withdrawal of the service.

OWN CHOICE MUSIC for the official accompanist must be in the hands of June Pitts
5 Minster Avenue, Beverley, HU17 0NL
by
Monday 16th December 2024

Music should be clearly marked with the performer's name and class, and any musical markings made clear, especially speed. Accompanists should be provided with an original copy for performance. If you ask to use the official accompanist, then you must do so or risk disqualification or an additional charge.

6. CHOICE OF MUSIC & TIME LIMITS:

In the own choice classes, maximum time limits will be strictly adhered to. Performers must note if they exceed the limit they may not be given a category, only an adjudication. There is no requirement to fill the whole of the allocated time.

Performers may only perform any piece once in any year's festival.

Performers may not perform a piece with which they won the previous year.

7. DUET & TRIO PARTNERS:

If one partner is unable to compete due to illness or accident, a substitute partner may play or sing, provided that the Secretary has notice of this, at the latest, the day before the class is due to take place. We trust performers and teachers not to take advantage of this rule simply because one partner has not had time to learn the piece, or obtain music in time.

8. ALTERATIONS & CANCELLATIONS:

The organisers reserve the right to cancel any classes which have too few entries, or to re-time any classes or make any alteration as may be necessary for the smooth running of the Festival. Where a class is cancelled before programming, the entry fee will be returned. In the event of an adjudicator being unavailable the organisers will appoint an accredited substitute. Where any part of the programme has to be postponed or cancelled, we regret we will not be able to refund or credit entry fees.

9. REQUIREMENTS 'ON THE DAY'

Performers should sign in 15 minutes before the assigned start time, as classes may run early. The title and composer of own choice pieces must be clearly written on the entry card, which should be handed in along with the music for the adjudicator, at the Registration Desk, at least 15 minutes before the start of the class

10. MUSIC for the ADJUDICATOR:

Copies of own choice music must be supplied for the adjudicator on the day of the Festival and should be handed in at the Registration Desk at least 15 minutes before the start of the class. The copy for the adjudicator must be clearly marked with performer's name, class and ballot number (plus the title and composer of the music if this is not clear).

11. PHOTOCOPYING OF MUSIC:

(a) Photocopying of sheet music is illegal unless you have written permission from the publisher, except as in (b) below.

(b) Adjudicator Copy - A person performing at the Festival may make one copy for the adjudicator provided that the performer has already purchased his/her own copy and that the copy made is retained and destroyed by the Festival

(c) Where the performer requires the services of the official accompanist, a photocopy may be sent in advance, but they should provide an original copy of the work for performance on the day.

(d) The performer and accompanist should have, with them, original copies (or proof of legal download) of the work for the performance at the Festival.

These rules are set by The Music Publishers Association in conjunction with the British and International Federation of Festivals. Performers finding difficulty in obtaining extra copies should apply to the publishers who are usually very sympathetic in granting permission to copy for a small fee. If you are in any doubt please contact The Music Publishers Association at 103 Kingsway, London WC2B 6QX.

12. AWARDS:

All performers will receive an adjudication and a certificate. 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place certificates will be awarded where appropriate in each class. The Festival has trophies available to award for most classes. Awards will be withheld if, in the opinion of the adjudicator, the standard of performance is not high enough.

TROPHIES WILL NORMALLY ONLY BE AWARDED WHERE THE RECIPIENT IS IN ONE OF THE TOP 4 CATEGORIES.

The adjudicator's decision is final.

Communication with the Adjudicator concerning any matters relating to the competition by entrants, teachers or other interested parties is prohibited and may lead to disqualification.

13. RECORDING & PHOTOGRAPHY:

The Festival is bound by copyright law and licensing of performances, hence, during performance or adjudication, the taking of photographs and making of recordings or videos, including on a mobile phone, are strictly prohibited.

14. PROFESSIONAL STATUS:

The Festival is intended for amateurs. For the purposes of this Festival, an amateur is considered to be one who does not receive more than out of pocket expenses for services rendered in that branch of the art with which the competition is concerned. This rule does not apply to conductors. There is also an exemption for one performer in class 561.

Creating Safer Festivals for Everyone

The Federation and its member Festivals use the following policies and procedures to provide safer festivals for everyone:

1. A single, definitive Child Protection Policy adopted by all Federation Festivals.
2. One or more designated Festival Safeguarding Officers (FSO) appointed for each Federation Festival:
Name: Chris Maynard Telephone: 01482 448738
3. Best practice advice in the form of Safe Working Practice leaflet, Festival Child Protection leaflet, and any other guidance produced by the Federation. This advice is supported by support and training for all Festival staff and volunteers. Guidance includes clear reporting procedures for anyone with a concern about a child.
4. Appropriate recruitment and induction procedures for all new staff and volunteers responsible for providing safe environments for everyone attending/performing at a Federation Festival
5. All Festival personnel wear a badge to identify their roles. All teachers/parents/guardians/carers are asked to report all incidents of any nature to anyone wearing a Festival badge. All reported incidents will be handled in accordance with the Safe Working Practice and Festival Child Protection best practice advice. In addition, we will ensure the availability of a quiet area / room where concerns can be expressed in private.
6. For the duration of a Festival all teachers/parents/guardians/carers are responsible for the continuous care and supervision of their own children/pupils. If they are unable to attend personally, they must delegate their responsibilities to an identified adult and ensure that their children/pupils are aware of the identity and name of the person responsible for their care. This includes supervision throughout all Festival venues, practice and changing areas that may be provided. The Festival cannot take any responsibility for property left unattended.
7. We do not permit any unauthorised photography at our Federation Festivals. For further information on what is and is not authorised, please contact the Festival Safeguarding Officer or anyone wearing a festival badge. If any child, young person or parent/carer is concerned about any photography or recording taking place at an event, please contact the Festival Safeguarding Officer, who will be pleased to discuss this matter with you.
8. Some children and adults with support needs may need help in order to take part. If this is the case, we ask the responsible teachers/parents/guardians/carers to contact the Festival Organisers prior to arrival. The Festival aims to meet these needs wherever possible but must know beforehand in order to prepare support – or to advise that help cannot be provided on this occasion.
9. The Festival's Child Protection Policy and its approach to Creating Safer Festivals for Everyone are published explicitly in our Syllabus, Programme and Website. By completing and signing the entry form all parents / guardians / carers and teachers of entrants under 18 (or adults of any age who may require additional support) confirm that they give (or have obtained) the necessary consents for the entrants to take part in the Festival. Without consent the entry to the Festival cannot be accepted.

Child Protection Policy Statement

The British and International Federation of Festivals for Music, Dance and Speech (BIFF) works for amateur festivals everywhere to help create thousands of educational performance opportunities for children and young people each year.

PERFORM | EDUCATE | INSPIRE

The Federation and our member Festivals are committed to ensuring safe environments for children and young people and believe that it is always unacceptable for a child or young person to experience abuse of any kind.

We recognise our responsibility to safeguard the welfare of all children and young people, by a commitment to recommend best practice which protects them.

This policy applies to our Board of Trustees, paid staff, Adjudicator members, volunteers, students or anyone working on behalf of the Federation and our member Festivals. It has been drawn up on the basis of relevant law and guidance that seeks to protect children and young people, and its purpose is to set out the overarching principles that guide our approach.

We recognise that:

- the welfare of the child/young person is paramount
- all children, regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation or identity, have the right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse
- working in partnership with children, young people, their parents, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare.

The purpose of the policy:

- to provide protection for the children and young people who participate in our festivals, including the children of festival members
- to provide staff and volunteers with guidance on procedures they should adopt in the event that they suspect a child or young person may be experiencing, or be at risk of, harm

We will seek to safeguard children and young people by:

- valuing them, listening to and respecting them
- appointing a Federation Head of Safeguarding and, for each festival, at least one Festival Safeguarding Officer
- adopting child protection guidelines through procedures and safe working practice for staff and volunteers
- working within the legislation and guidance that specifically addresses the needs of young performers (specifically, the Children and Young People Acts 1933 and 1963, and the Children (Performance and Activities) (England) Regulations 2014
- adopting a safe and balanced approach to the issue of creating and using photography and images of children and young people at our festivals and in our communications
- recruiting staff and volunteers safely, ensuring all necessary checks are made
- sharing information about child protection and safe working practice with children, parents, staff and volunteers
- sharing information about concerns with agencies who need to know, and involving parents and children appropriately
- providing effective management for staff and volunteers through supervision, support and training.

The Federation will review this policy each year in line with NSPCC guidance or sooner in light of any changes in legislation or guidance.

The Festival 1977 – 2024

In 1977, Ian Cockerline, the Church Organist, had a brainwave – why not have a Musical Festival to help celebrate the Church's Centenary in 1978. He "advised" the Church Choir that they were organising it and then dragged me, a non-Choir member, in to support him. We drew up a syllabus, in hope, which included Piano, Instrumental and Voice. I'm not sure if we had Verse and Bible reading classes at that time - my oldest syllabus is 1981.

Every year has seen various changes in the syllabus, from age groupings for various classes to rewriting some of the rules. We had one teacher who could always find a way around various rules – nothing too drastic, but it kept us on our toes. We had another teacher who used to sit on the front row on the centre aisle and, unintentionally, distract some of the players who did not know them. We got round this by reserving the front two rows "in case the adjudicator wanted to talk to all those playing in a particular class."

In 1984/5 we joined the British Federation of Musical Festivals which has grown to become the British and International Federation of Festivals (BIFF) which has links all over the world. At the time we joined we were an anomaly as we were the only Festival run by a Church, most were free-standing organisations. Membership has given us access to professional adjudicators and we have learnt a lot from their experiences as they adjudicated and examined all round the world; they've also shared a number of amusing incidents.

We are very fortunate in that, when the Church was remodelled for the anniversary in 1978, we ended up with such an excellent venue. A number of people who have sung and played in the Church have commented on the excellent acoustics. We have had most of the classes in the Church but at times we've had to use other venues. Our friends at Zion United Reformed Church have been very supportive and for a number of years we held classes there. We've also used the Darby and Joan Hall in Cottingham for our verse classes, Cottingham High School, mainly for Choirs and Cottingham Parish Church, for adult choirs. We also must thank Gough & Davy who one year lent us a piano each weekend for 3 weeks.

We do occasionally worry that, if our numbers grow, we could have to spread over more weekends or look into extra venues. Our usual entry was about 350-400 for a number of years pre-pandemic though in 2012 we had an amazing entry of over 600 and had to use 4 venues at the same time!

FRIENDS OF THE FESTIVAL

The Friends' Association is a valuable part of the Festival and the income from it helps young people in their musical education. Awards are made at the Celebration Concert. Previous recipients have used the money in a variety of ways. It has been spent on music, tuition fees, and has been put towards new musical instruments. The subscription fee is £15 (minimum) which gives admission to all sessions of the Festival and a copy of the programme.

If YOU wish to join the Friends please contact Elaine Moll, 10 The Paddock Cottingham HU16 4RA, Tel 876747, emoll10@hotmail.com, or speak to one of the Stewards.

VOLUNTEERS and HELPERS

We are very very grateful to all the kind people who help out at the festival each year, particularly those who sit at the reception desk issuing tickets and programmes and collecting in the music – it makes such a difference to the smooth running of the festival. If you would like to be involved and have a little time to offer over the festival weekends, do please get in touch.

TELL US WHAT YOU THINK

If you have any comments about the Festival or suggestions for things we might include in the future, please do let us know.
